

JOIN US FOR A SPECIAL
FREE PRESENTATION!

The IEP Meeting: Becoming an Informed, Effective Parent

WITH WAYNE STEEDMAN, ESQ.

Imagine an IEP meeting as the means to develop a good educational program, instead of a source of confusion and stress.

Maryland attorney Wayne Steedman will give an overview of the tools parents can use to advocate effectively for special education students. Learn about education law, components of the IEP, effective ways to monitor progress, and how to document concerns.

Join us, and walk away better prepared for your next IEP meeting.

Saturday, March 14, 2015

Registration and seating at 9:30 a.m.

Presentation begins promptly at 10:00 a.m.

Anne Arundel Community College

Florestano Building Room 101

101 College Parkway

Arnold, Maryland

For directions, visit www.tacanow.org/maryland

To register for this free event, contact Alison Hamilton at alison.hamilton@tacanow.org

ABOUT THE SPEAKER: Wayne Steedman is an attorney and founding partner in the law firm of Callegary & Steedman whose practice is devoted primarily to the representation of children with disabilities. He has represented his clients in administrative due process hearings and state and federal courts. Mr. Steedman obtained his J.D. degree from the University of Maryland Law School. In addition to his law degree, Mr. Steedman holds a master's degree in social work from the University of Maryland School of Social Work. Prior to practicing law, Mr. Steedman was in charge of the clinical treatment program at the Forbush School at Shepherd Pratt Hospital, where he was employed for more than 20 years. Additionally he served for approximately ten years as a Due Process Hearing officer in special education cases.